Opening 3

*"No one lives in this room without confronting the whiteness of the wall behind the poems, planks of books, photographs of dead heroines.
Without contemplating last and late the true nature of poetry.
The drive to connect. The dream of a common language."*

~Adrienne Rich

The drive to connect, the dream of a common language, a common ground....We claim LaGrange College as our common ground, our community, separate from the world at large.
Within this community we each go about our individual business, viewing the world from unique angles. What is it that makes our ground common, that binds us in this community?
In our attempt to find an answer, we turned to several members of the LaGrange College community and gave them cameras. We asked these people, our I.C.P.'s [Independent Camera
People], to show us a day in their lives, picturing our common ground.

Pre-Olympic Training Site, LaGrange GA 10.17.95,

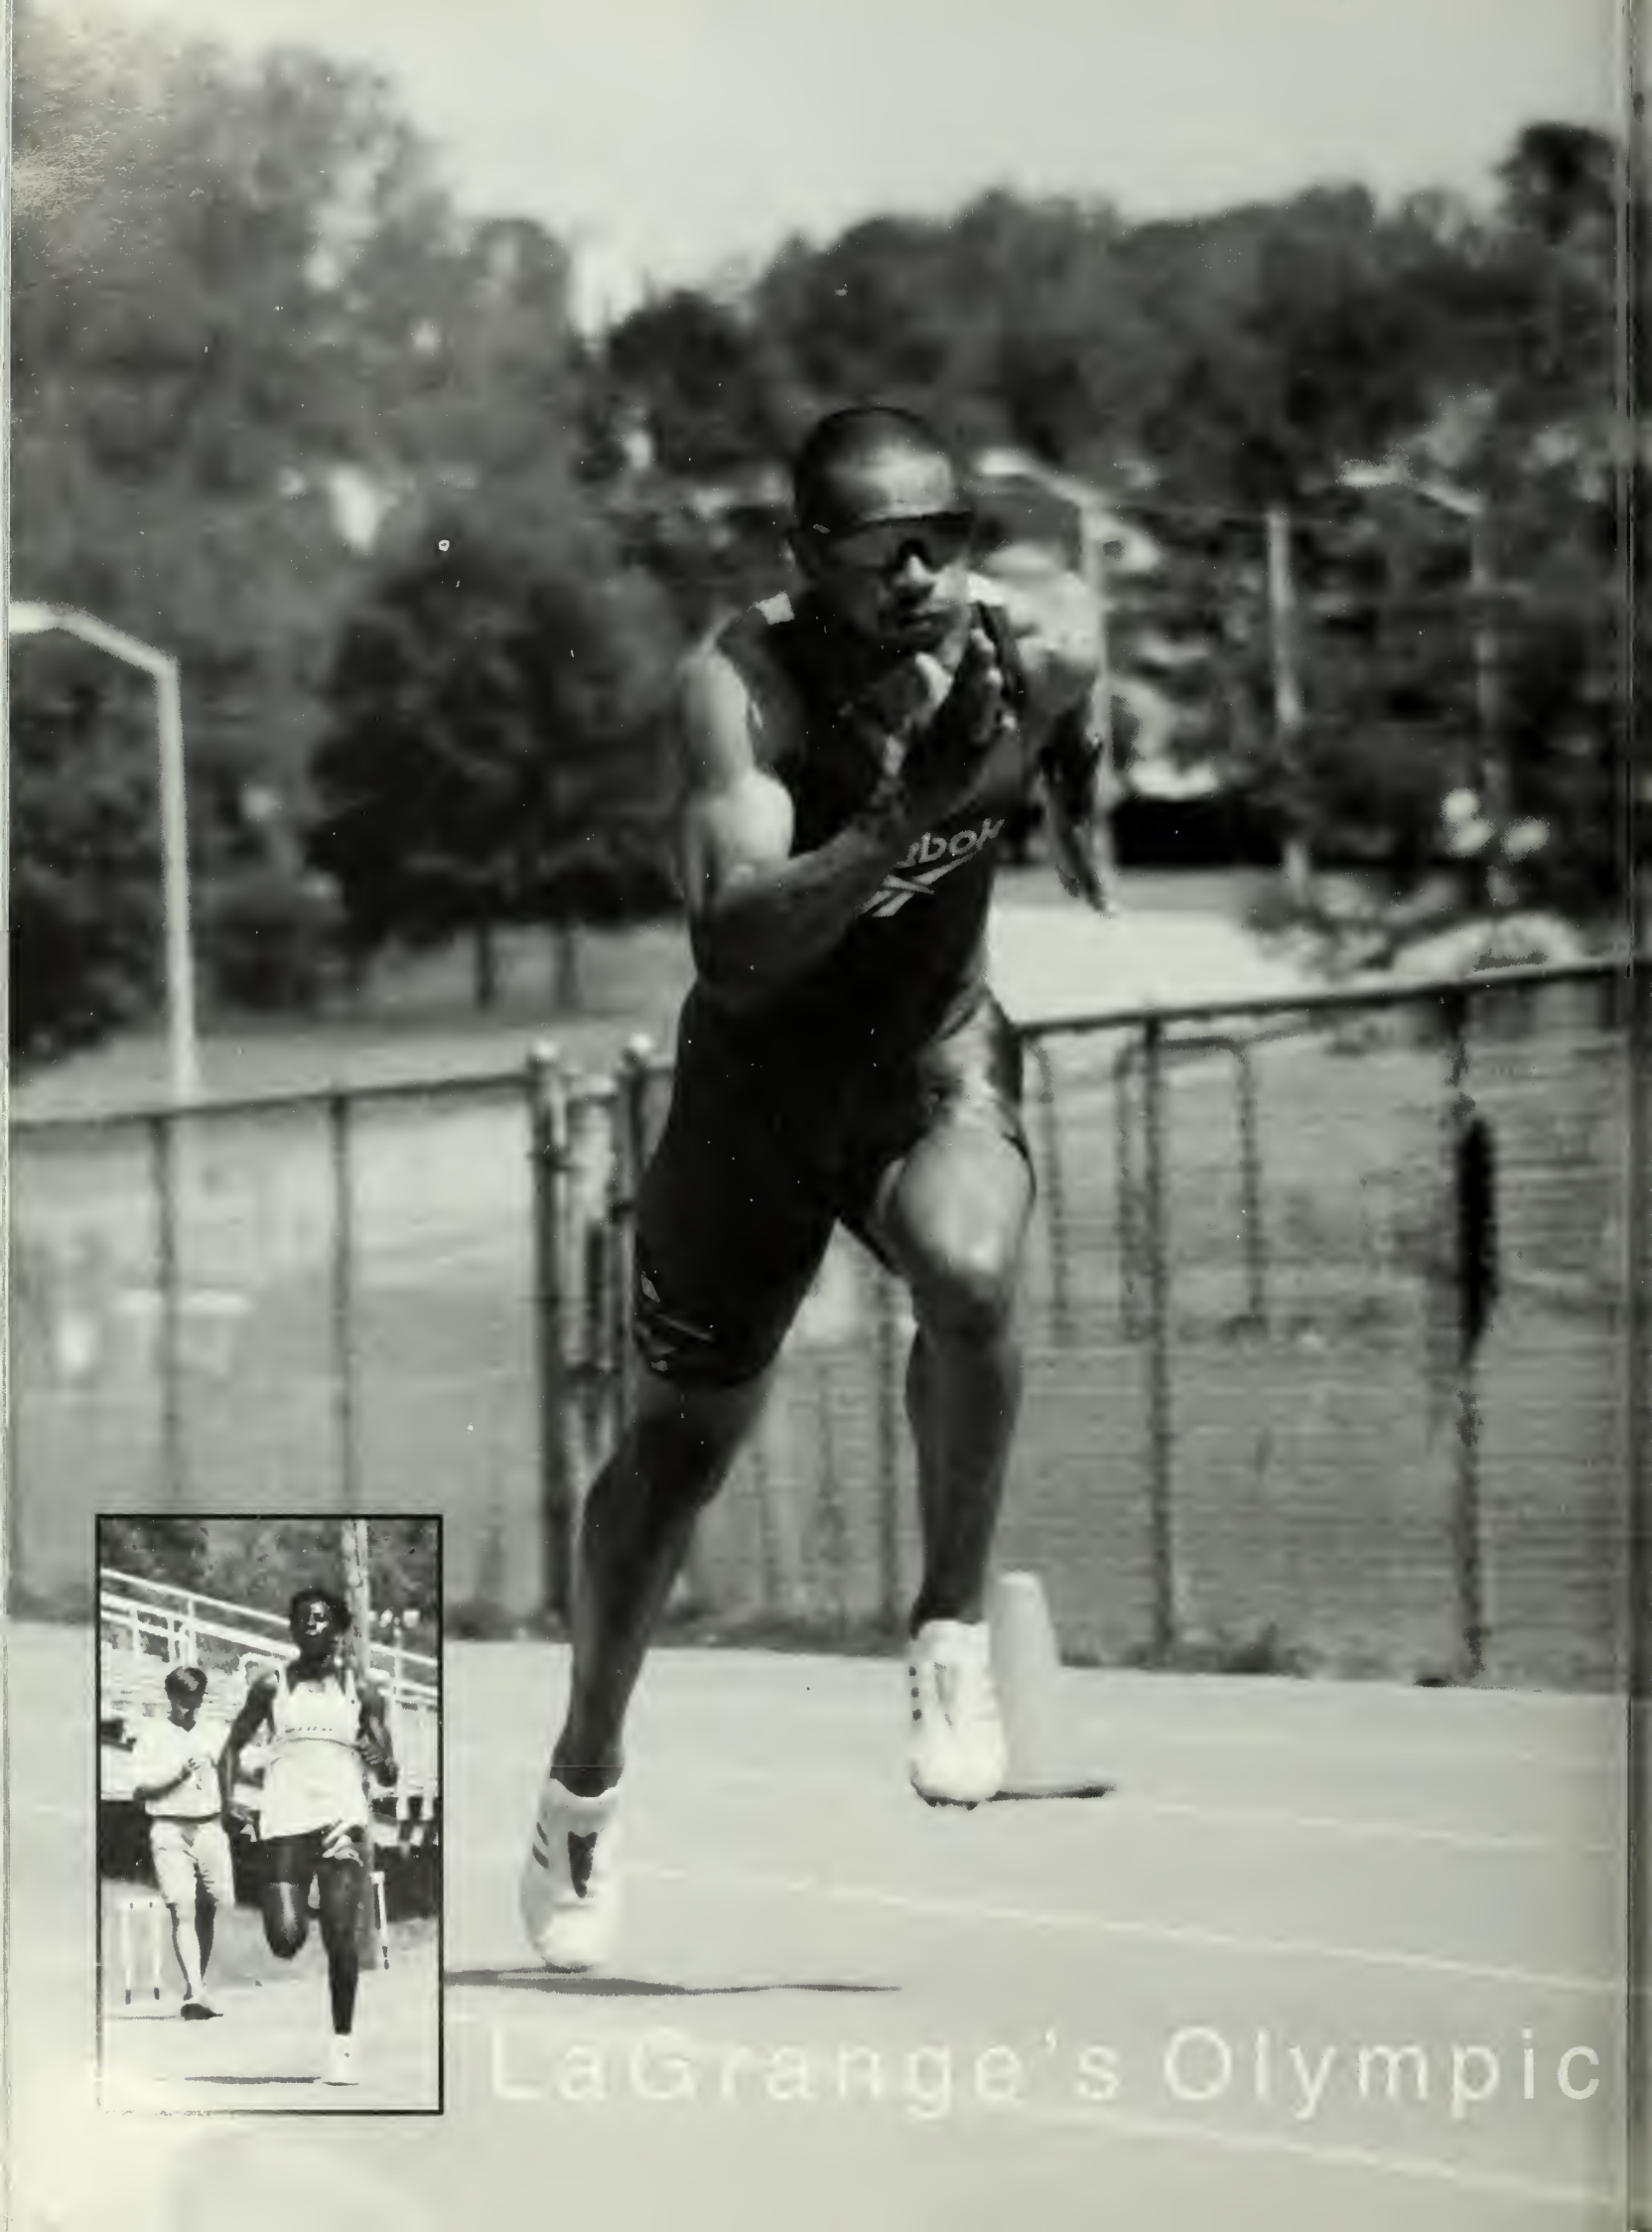

LaGrange College played an important role in the 1996 Olympic Games that were Atlanta. Over 275 Olympic athletes and their trainers from all over the world came to LaGrange to prepare for the Olympics. The LaGrange Sports Authority arranged for over 14 countries to come to LaGrange to train. LaGrange College provided shelter, food, facilities and assistance to make it all possible.

Dean of Students Nancy Alford and Dr. Adolfo Benavides, Professor of Business Administration and Economics, served as torch bearers when the torch passed through LaGrange on July 17.

Several other members of the administration, faculty and staff played important roles in the Olympics as interpreters, event volunteers and filling staff positions.

Randstad Staffing Services also provided jobs for many students at the Olympics.

Being so close to the Olympics has been a great experience for many of the students at LaGrange, allowing them to exchange ideas with athletes from all over the world. The students featured in the Coca-Cola billboards were especially honored. There were 70 billboards erected by Coca-Cola, three of which featured LaGrange students Tommy Asinga, Michelle McGruder, Dario Clement, Barnabe Jolicoeur, Ruth Mangwe, Tina Paulino, Stephen Lugor, Whitaker Bowman, Tracy Sellars, Steven Gresham, Andrea Boyd, Carolyn Watts, David Bonner and Richie Matthews.

Quote: "I think we have continued to make improvements in our educational programs. Our campus is an extremely attractive one. Nothing has made our campus more attractive than the new entrance leading past the chapel and the library to an institution dedicated to the educating of the mind and heart."

Common Ground

Colophon

The 1996 Quadrangle was printed by the Delmar Company of Charlotte, North Carolina with a press run of 600 copies. Our Delmar representative and staff cheerleader was Lisa Heiser. The book is 9" x 12", 176 pages, and is printed on eighty-pound gloss paper. It is Smythe sewn, rounded and backed, using 160 point binder's board. The cover is printed using a four-color litho process with an additional metallic Pantone color for the lettering. Cover scans and film output by TR Digital Productions in Atlanta, Georgia. The endsheets are printed solid in Pantone 8860C. Sixteen pages of the book are four-color.

The book was produced on Macintosh computers using Adobe Pagemaker. All text is set in variations of either Adobe Garamond or Helvetica. Additional copies of the Quadrangle are available through the Office of Student Development, LaGrange College, 601 Broad Street, LaGrange, Georgia, 30240.

Student mug shots were photographed by Jan Overton of Delmar Photographic Studios in Atlanta. Special thanks for photographic contributions go to the ubiquitous Natalie Heard and April Purcell and their "Day in the Life" photo crew, John Lawrence for his photographs of the campus in the springtime and of Olympic racewalkers, Multi-Image Studio of LaGrange for their aerial photograph and their perpetual patience, and an enormous hip-hip-hooray to Kevin Heiser of the Heiser Group for his skilled darkroom work.

Special thanks to our ICPs (Independent Camera People): Karen Albornoz, Read Blumberg, Marcia Brown, Vee Brown, Christophe Curé, Dr. Michael Frassetto, Ryan Hancock, Tiffany Miller, Dr. Walter Murphy, Kevin Neely, Erin Schwartz, Carey Taft, Cynara Webb, Elske Wortman, and Terrell Yelding. All other photos were taken by the Quadrangle staff.
